Learn About Doing Business in Mexico from an Expert

BY

What are the differences between fixed capital companies (S.A.) and variable capital companies (S.A. de C. V.)? What are the most promising sectors in Mexico? How do I protect my intellectual property? How do I manage Mexican payroll and labor charges?

These questions represent just a few issues that every company doing business in Mexico needs to be aware of. Find answers to a wide range of business issues at Schneider Downs' Doing Business in Mexico seminar, in Columbus, Tuesday, October 22 and in Pittsburgh, Wednesday, October 23.

Our featured speaker, Juan Ignacio Rivero, Partner, Rivero & Olivares, will discuss opportunities for your business in Mexico and will focus on a variety of topics, including business structures, promising sectors, corporate and individual tax overviews, payroll and labor charges, transfer pricing, intellectual property, and corporate governance.

Juan has more than 17 years of experience in public accounting. He possesses extensive experience with audit, compilation and tax engagements and business valuation.

Juan has broad experience in a variety of industries, and currently heads Rivero & Olivares' Tax Department, Transfer Pricing Department and M&A reviews in the firm.
